

COMPLICATED GAME

I don't wanna see nobody,
I don't wanna be nobody,
If I can't see you.
Darlin' what can I do, when you're not around?

You know I miss the sound
Of your whispers in the night.
When I think it's all wrong
You tell me it's alright.

It's a complicated game
And I believe it's your turn.
Though we never move the same
It's a complicated game.
But, now it doesn't mean that much.
No electricity when we touch.
No love lost, but, nothing gained
It's a complicated game.
It's a complicated game.
It's a complicated game.
We never move the same.

Was it something I said?
Was it something I missed?
Is it in my head?
Or is it someone you kissed?
I don't want to know
And I don't mean to be cynical, but,
It seems like the time,
To turn my head and walk away
'Cause I know you're not the kind
To say to me, "it just can't be".
"you're living a lie".
I have no blinders, I can see
From the corner of my eye
It's a complicated game.
It's a complicated game.
It's a complicated game.
We never move the same.

But, now it doesn't mean that much.
No electricity when we touch.
No love lost, but, nothing gained,

And you know I would, if I could,
I'd change in a flash.
But, my memories, like your letters,
Have all been burned to ash.
It's a complicated game.
Nothing to say that's not already been said.
It's a complicated game.
Nowhere to go, guess I'll just stay in bed.
It's a complicated game.
Nothing to do to change the way you feel.
We never move the same.
Tell me some lies, I want to know our love is real.

I don't wanna see nobody,
I don't wanna be nobody,
If I can't see you.....
