

EVERYTHING CHANGES

By Bobby Brennan

She left a key on the nightstand, a note taped to the bathroom mirror.
She says, I'm so scared of being alone, but, I'm more afraid of stayin' here.
Said she's gotta leave, hope I understand.
Remember, life's just what happens to you when you're sittin' 'round makin' plans.

And everything changes.
Everything changes
In the blink of an eye.
In the time it takes a falling star, to shoot across the sky...
    Everything changes.
In the beat of a heart...blood pulsing through a vein.
In the time it takes a drop to disappear, after a Summer rain..
    Everything changes...and everything changes.
    Everything changes...    Everything changes.

Now my days are filled with isolation.
They run together in an endless stream.
Since you've gone I don't know if its day or night.
I just walk around in this dream.
And sometimes I can't see the whole picture, even though I try.
Now, it's too late for love to overcome this ... and we're both asking ourselves why.
    Everything changes....Everything changes.

In the blink of an eye
In the time it takes a falling star, to shoot across the sky...
    Everything changes.
In the beat of a heart...blood pulsing through a vein.
In the time it takes a drop to disappear, after a Summer rain..
    Everything changes.
In the still of the night the clock chimes the hour half.
Time slips away like the space between a smile and a laugh.
Everything changes...everything changes.
    Everything changes...everything changes.
Nothing stays the same
You point at me - I point at you.
When the there's really no one to blame.
Everything changes...everything changes.
Everything changes...everything changes.
Changes, changes, changes

In the time it takes a falling star, to shoot across the sky...
    Everything changes.
In the time it takes a falling star, to shoot across the sky...
    Everything changes.
You point at me - I point at you.

EVERYTHING CHANGES

By Bobby Brennan

When there's really no one to blame.

Everything changes...Everything

Time slips away like the space between a smile and a laugh.

Everything changes...everything changes...Everything changes
