

I REMEMBER WHEN

By Bobby Brennan

Is it you or is it me or is it something in between?
I don't know why we say the things, you say the things, I say to you.
Was it just an accident, or wasted time that was misspent?
I don't know why we do the things, I do the things, you do to me.

I remember when you sang a different tune.
We walked the beach in Cozumel on a Sunday afternoon.
You said you'd hold onto this moment forever and a day.
We were lost in love but now you let it slip away.
You let it slip away.
Now what else can I say?

Cause I remember when it wasn't quite like this.
And I remember when I could feel something in your kiss.
Twelve months in and no way out. Twelve years gone without a doubt, but I remember when you said it could never be like this.
No wonder woman, no wonder why,
no time to do the things we try to do,
we try to do, it's up to you and I still remember when.

I remember when you sang a different tune.
Once upon a time when you were me and I was you.
Now I'm wonderen if, your heart was ever true.
Tell me what do you think of, while I think of you--while I think of you.
What else can I do?

Cause I remember when, It wasn't like this at all.
And I remember when you tripped and I took the fall.
No ones ever gonna make her try to change the way she twists each lie.
But I still remember when.

Why can't I see the things I need, the things I need to see.
Why can't I say the things I want you to say to me.

There's nothing I can do, this is now and that was then.....
But I still remember when you sang a different tune.
And I remember when you claimed to see, your reflection in the moon.
I remember when, it wasn't quite like this.
And I remember when, I could feel something in your kiss.
I remember promises, on a rainy afternoon.
And I remember when you went away, you said goodbye I think too soon.
I remember when it wasn't like this at all.
And I remember when I tripped, and you took the fall.

No wonder woman, no wonder why,

I REMEMBER WHEN

By Bobby Brennan

No ones ever gonna make you try to see the way you do,
Do you see the things you do to me?
Can't change the way you look at me
Can't erase the time in between the dreams we used to share
...And I still care and I still remember when
I remember when it wasn't quite like this
Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.

I remember when we weren't so hit and miss
Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.
I remember when I could feel something in your kiss
Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.
I remember when you sang a different tune...
Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.

Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.
Stranger things have happened, but nothing as strange as this.
Nothing as strange as this

Nothing as strange as this
