

WHERE LOVE GOES

By Bobby Brennan

You don't know where you're goin' to,
but, there's somewhere else you've got to be.
I don't know what you're runnin' from.
I hope it isn't me.

Win or lose, some just got to play.
Passion is the crime and love's the price you pay.
The circle's unbroken by words never spoken, and you wonder how it ever got this crazy.

I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and goes.
I don't know. I don't know...Where love comes and it goes.

I've seen all the warning signs, of a love broken down to tears.
I've read between each line, while you counted and labeled my fears.

Win or lose, some just got to play.
Passion is the crime and your heart you give away.
The chains are broken, by too many words spoken, and you wonder how it ever got this out of hand.

Well I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and goes.
I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.

They say that only time will tell if a heart is true.
But, some people fall in and out of love, always looking for something new.
I hear the clock ticking and there's nothing I can do.
Can you hear it, too?

Win or lose, some just got to play.
Passion is the crime and love's the price you pay.
The circle's unbroken, by words never spoken, and you wonder how it ever got this crazy.

I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and goes.
I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and goes.
I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
I don't know. I don't know....I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and goes.
I don't know. I don't know....I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
I don't know. I don't know....I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
I don't know. I don't know....I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
I don't know. I don't know....I don't know. I don't know....Where love comes and it goes.
